Litigation By The Numbers® - Fourth Edition

by Julie A. Goren, Esq.

(current edition revised as of July 2010)

"The essential up-to-date California civil litigation handbook"

(SEE REVERSE FOR ORDER FORM)

We offer two books focusing on California state court litigation!

Litigation By The Numbers®-Fourth Edition ("LBTN"), updated every January and July, is a looseleaf with over 400 pages devoted solely to the intricacies of California civil litigation procedure. As it takes the reader through the life of a California state court civil lawsuit, it focuses on commonly -encountered tasks, e.g., preparing, filing, and serving pleadings; serving and responding to discovery; noticing and opposing motions; notifying the court of settlement, etc. You'll find:

- An explanation of each task
- A sample of the document or Judicial Council form necessary to accomplish that task
- Key references to applicable California Code of Civil Procedure and California Rule of Court
- Associated filing and service deadlines
- Step-by-step calendaring instructions

California Civil Litigation and Discovery (the "Substantive Companion"), now in its Third Edition (as of January 2010), is a coil bound book of approximately 230 pages. It takes a substantive approach to litigation (e.g., what the pleadings should say, rather than what they look like) referring to LBTN for up-to-date information on format and filing and service deadlines. It's for anyone wanting more in-depth information about litigation. Several California paralegal schools and California law schools have adopted both books for their civil litigation and civil procedure courses.

Our customers include new and experienced lawyers, paralegals, legal secretaries, law students, paralegal students, legal secretary students, self-represented individuals, and public law librarians. Both books are required texts in the paralegal programs at UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Santa Barbara, Santa Ana College, American River College, Fresno City College, and more. LBTN is the required text for the legal secretary course at Los Medanos College and the annual Advanced Civil Litigation course presented by the Orange County Association of Legal Administrators.
